Social Sciences

Institution: Family Rescue International Institute

Course Description:
Explores human behavior, society, and culture, developing analytical and research skills to address social challenges.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Analyze social structures and cultural dynamics.

2. Conduct research using qualitative and quantitative methods.

3. Understand social policy and community development.

4. Apply critical thinking to social issues.

Modules / Units:

- Introduction to Social Sciences: Overview of social science disciplines.

- Sociology & Anthropology: Study of society, culture, and human interaction.

- Psychology Fundamentals: Basics of human behavior and cognition.

- Research Methods: Techniques for conducting social research.

- Social Policy & Development: Analysis of social policies and community programs.

- Global Social Issues: Examination of worldwide social challenges.

- Fieldwork & Community Engagement: Practical application through community projects.

Assessment Methods:

- Research projects

- Essays & reports

- Class participation

Recommended Resources:

- Journals, case studies, online databases, and field research guides